

2006 POMOCO Family Movie Series

AT BUCKROE BEACH

Bring your friends, family, folding chairs, and blankets to Buckroe Beach on Tuesday nights this summer to enjoy free movies.
Entertainment begins at 7pm, followed by our feature presentation at sunset. • FREE ADMISSION!

Madagascar (2005)

Hosts: Vice Mayor Joseph H. Spencer
& Henry Ayer, VP Pomoco Auto Group

6/20 At New York's Central Park Zoo, a lion, a zebra, a giraffe, and a hippo are best friends and stars of the show. But when one of the animals goes missing from their cage, the other three break free to look for him, only to find themselves reunited ... on a ship en route to Africa. When their vessel is hijacked, however, the friends, who have all been raised in captivity, learn first-hand what life can be like in the wild. PG 86 minutes

Nanny McPhee

Hosts: Jeff & Page Kremp,
Jeff's Flowers of Course

6/27 Mr. Cedric Brown has just lost his wife and is now left with his seven children who misbehave so much that all the nannies have run away. Now he is told by a mysterious voice that he should get Nanny McPhee who is a magical woman with special powers. PG 97 minutes

Wallace & Gromit in the Curse of Were-Rabbit

Host: Ray Walsh,
CEO/President Metro Productions

7/11 It's 'vege-mania' in Wallace and Gromit's neighborhood, and our two enterprising chums are cashing in with their humane pest-control outfit, "Anti-Pesto." With only days to go before the annual Giant Vegetable Competition, business is booming, but Wallace & Gromit are finding out that running a "humane" pest control outfit has its drawbacks as their West Wallaby Street home fills to the brim with captive rabbits. PG 85 minutes

The Education of Little Tree

Host: Hampton Citizens' Unity Commission

7/18 Little Tree is an 8-year-old Cherokee boy, who, during the time of the depression, loses his parents and starts to live with his Indian grandma and grandpa and learn the wisdom of the Cherokee way of life. PG 112 minutes

Field of Dreams

Host: Mike Holtzclaw,
Reporter, Pop Culture, Daily Press

7/25 Iowa farmer Ray Kinsella hears a voice tell him, "If you build it, he will come." He interprets this message as an instruction to build a baseball field in his corn field, which brings the spirits of ball players from days past. When the voices continue, Ray seeks out a reclusive author to help him understand the meaning of the messages and the purpose for his field. PG 107 minutes

The Legend of Zorro (2005)

Host: Rev. Anderson Clary,
Queen Street Baptist Church

8/1 Alejandro DeLaVega is torn between two worlds: his life as Zorro and his life as a family man. After Alejandro breaks his promise (again) to stop wearing the mask, his wife, Elena, leaves him, and soon begins seeing Armand, a haughty French count, who Zorro believes is hiding something from her. He is intent on finding out what that is. Little does he know, there are others working to uncover certain truths as well. PG 129 minutes

Madison

Host: Jeff Lawson, 13NEWS WEATHER LAB

8/8 This inspiring true story finds the McCormick family in Madison, IN in 1971 – years after Jim McCormick had left the dangerous sport of hydro-plane boat racing. In an effort of saving Madison's livelihood of water transportation by entering the regatta championship, he can raise the status of the town, and gain his son's respect. He takes a second-hand boat and a doubtful crew and battles the giants in the sport. PG 94 minutes

E.T. The Extra-Terrestrial

Hosts: Ted Alexander & Jennifer Pulley,
2WD Breakfast Bunch

8/15 A being from outer space is accidentally stranded on Earth. In his search for refuge, E.T. wanders into a backyard where he is discovered by ten-year-old Elliott. Elliott assumes responsibility for E.T.'s safety while searching for a way to reunite E.T. with his own kind in this heartwarming story of friendship and discovery. PG 115 minutes

Racing Stripes

Host: Greg Garrett, Realtor

8/22 A young girl raises an abandoned baby zebra, which she names Stripes, on her family's Kentucky ranch. Her father is a retired horse trainer, and when the zebra is fully grown, she asks dad to let the animal compete in the year's biggest horse race, the Kentucky Crown. PG 102 minutes

Dreamer: Inspired by a True Story

Host: Dr. Patrick Russo,
Superintendent Hampton City Schools

8/29 A trainer and his daughter nurse an injured horse back to health, with an eye on racing her in the Breeders' Cup. PG 102 minutes
